

Despite help from volunteers, M.A.P. still needs revenue to make these free events happen. Every year this organization hosts a drawing to raise money, selling tickets for $1. Rogers says that this an annual fundraiser that is always a success. The last fundraiser was held on the Fourth of July at the Hal Brady Recreation Complex in the city of Alachua. Drawing winner Art Masciulli took home four tickets to Walt Disney World.

Currently, Wilma and Bill Rogers are looking for a homebase where they can host all of the events. At the moment the events are held in people's homes, Depot Park and the Alachua library. Wilma Rogers says they are working hard towards this goal and are hopeful that it can soon become a reality.
