IN BRIEF

DeSantis signs death warrant in 1985 murder

TALLAHASSEE – More than 34 years after the nude body of a 14-year-old girl was found in Pinellas County, Gov. Ron DeSantis on Wednesday signed a death warrant for convicted murderer James Dailey.

DeSantis scheduled a Nov. 7 execution for Dailey, who would be the third inmate put to death since DeSantis took office in January.

The others were Gary Ray Bowles, who was executed in August for a 1994 murder in Jacksonville, and Bobby Joe Long, who was executed in May for a 1984 murder in Hillsborough County.

Dailey, now 73, was convicted in the May 1985 murder of 14-year-old Shelly Boggio, who had been hitchhiking with her twin sister near St. Petersburg, according to a summary of the case released Wednesday night by DeSantis' office.

Dailey and another man, Jack Percy, later took Boggio to what was described as a "deserted fishing area," where her body was later found with multiple stab wounds, according to the summary and court documents.

Percy, now 64, was sentenced to life in prison for the murder, while Dailey received the death penalty.

In releasing the death warrant, DeSantis' office included a 1994 resentencing order that provided grisly details about Boggio's death. It said the motive in the crime was sexual battery.
